

ABOUT KYNISCA

Kynisca is a global organization dedicated to advancing women's football through long-term investment, high-performance environments, and a commitment to building sustainable club ecosystems. Founded by Michele Kang, Kynisca brings together clubs, athletes, experts, and strategic partners to help raise the standard of the women's game on and off the pitch. Through its growing global platform, Kynisca is focused on increasing visibility, expanding commercial opportunity, and supporting the next generation of female athletes with the resources, infrastructure, and innovation they need to compete at the highest level. For more information, visit kynisca.com.